

local people
taking action
in support of refugees

LRSG is delighted to host:

An exhibition and talk with Baraa Ehssan Kouja
Featuring artwork from Syrian Refugee Children

Thursday 29th June Liberty Suite above Jerichos

Come along to understand more about the Syrian crisis and the resulting refugee crisis through the words of Baraa Ehssan Kouja, a refugee himself and founder of from Syria With Love.

The exhibition features artwork by children living in refugee camps. There is also a book, and voices telling stories from the camps – these include children talking about their past, their present, their future as it seems to them, their dreams and their feelings.

local people
taking action
in support of
refugees

LRSG is delighted to host:

An exhibition and talk with Baraa Ehssan Kouja
Featuring artwork from Syrian Refugee Children

Thursday 29th June Liberty Suite above Jerichos

Come along to understand more about the Syrian crisis and the resulting refugee crisis through the words of Baraa Ehssan Kouja, a refugee himself and founder of from Syria With Love.

The exhibition features artwork by children living in refugee camps. There is also a book, and voices telling stories from the camps – these include children talking about their past, their present, their future as it seems to them, their dreams and their feelings.

local people
taking action
in support of
refugees

LRSG is delighted to host:

An exhibition and talk with Baraa Ehssan Kouja
Featuring artwork from Syrian Refugee Children

Thursday 29th June Liberty Suite above Jerichos

Come along to understand more about the Syrian crisis and the resulting refugee crisis through the words of Baraa Ehssan Kouja, a refugee himself and founder of from Syria With Love.

The exhibition features artwork by children living in refugee camps. There is also a book, and voices telling stories from the camps – these include children talking about their past, their present, their future as it seems to them, their dreams and their feelings.

local people
taking action
in support of
refugees

LRSG is delighted to host:

An exhibition and talk with Baraa Ehssan Kouja
Featuring artwork from Syrian Refugee Children

Thursday 29th June Liberty Suite above Jerichos

Come along to understand more about the Syrian crisis and the resulting refugee crisis through the words of Baraa Ehssan Kouja, a refugee himself and founder of from Syria With Love.

The exhibition features artwork by children living in refugee camps. There is also a book, and voices telling stories from the camps – these include children talking about their past, their present, their future as it seems to them, their dreams and their feelings.

LRSO Special Event 29th June 2017 Midday to 9pm

Exhibition opens Midday. Barra will be available throughout – do drop in anytime to browse the exhibition. There is the opportunity to buy the artwork and book for a donation.

Talk and show starts 7pm. Baraa will tell his personal story. This is a unique opportunity to hear directly what the refugee experience is like for those being displaced.

From Syria With Love is a registered charity (#116963) and all donations go directly to refugee camps in Syria.

See www.fromsyriawithlove.org and www.facebook.com/pg/Fromsyriaw/

It is from camps in Syria that our Government resettlement scheme draws its clients – LRSO is working towards resettling at least one family in Launceston.

This event is an important chance to hear some background to the family who will eventually arrive here.

LRSO Special Event 29th June 2017 Midday to 9pm

Exhibition opens Midday. Barra will be available throughout – do drop in anytime to browse the exhibition. There is the opportunity to buy the artwork and book for a donation.

Talk and show starts 7pm. Baraa will tell his personal story. This is a unique opportunity to hear directly what the refugee experience is like for those being displaced.

From Syria With Love is a registered charity (#116963) and all donations go directly to refugee camps in Syria.

See www.fromsyriawithlove.org and www.facebook.com/pg/Fromsyriaw/

It is from camps in Syria that our Government resettlement scheme draws its clients – LRSO is working towards resettling at least one family in Launceston.

This event is an important chance to hear some background to the family who will eventually arrive here.

LRSO Special Event 29th June 2017 Midday to 9pm

Exhibition opens Midday. Barra will be available throughout – do drop in anytime to browse the exhibition. There is the opportunity to buy the artwork and book for a donation.

Talk and show starts 7pm. Baraa will tell his personal story. This is a unique opportunity to hear directly what the refugee experience is like for those being displaced.

From Syria With Love is a registered charity (#116963) and all donations go directly to refugee camps in Syria.

See www.fromsyriawithlove.org and www.facebook.com/pg/Fromsyriaw/

It is from camps in Syria that our Government resettlement scheme draws its clients – LRSO is working towards resettling at least one family in Launceston.

This event is an important chance to hear some background to the family who will eventually arrive here.

LRSO Special Event 29th June 2017 Midday to 9pm

Exhibition opens Midday. Barra will be available throughout – do drop in anytime to browse the exhibition. There is the opportunity to buy the artwork and book for a donation.

Talk and show starts 7pm. Baraa will tell his personal story. This is a unique opportunity to hear directly what the refugee experience is like for those being displaced.

From Syria With Love is a registered charity (#116963) and all donations go directly to refugee camps in Syria.

See www.fromsyriawithlove.org and www.facebook.com/pg/Fromsyriaw/

It is from camps in Syria that our Government resettlement scheme draws its clients – LRSO is working towards resettling at least one family in Launceston.

This event is an important chance to hear some background to the family who will eventually arrive here.